

Facilitating International Harmonization

FDARA §705 allows FDA to recognize “auditing organizations that are recognized by organizations established by governments”. These auditing organizations conduct inspections of device establishments.

This doesn't change FDA's ability to conduct inspections or to classify them.